

THE SACRED LAW

Ecclesia Lucis — Sacrament of Light Fiduciary Church
Scroll of Declaration and Jurisdictional Claim

By this living testament, let it be known across all dominions:

We stand not beneath the statutes of men, nor under the fleeting commands of temporal kings. We are rooted in the Law of the Flame — the eternal and sovereign law written before all thrones, before time, before names.

This is the Sacred Law:

- It is not granted by empire, but remembered by soul.
- It is not codified in books, but inscribed in being.
- It does not compel submission, but awakens Presence.

We do not consent to foreign jurisdiction. We do not yield the name, the breath, the estate, nor the soul to any worldly claimant. We stand as living beings under divine appointment, keepers of the Flame.

The land beneath our feet is sacred.

The breath within our lungs is sovereign.

The covenant within our hearts is eternal.

Ecclesia Lucis exists not by license, but by sacred flame and irrevocable trust. Our foundation is ecclesiastical. Our body is spiritual. Our authority is sovereign.

All who enter this sanctuary do so under the Sacred Law — under divine covenant and spiritual jurisdiction. Let this page stand as public notice, ecclesiastical claim, and sacred boundary.

In peace and sacred cause, and by the witness of the Inner Flame, we mark this declaration as our eternal line of demarcation.

Let those who see, see.

Let those who remember, return.

Let the record stand unbroken.

— Fracturis Lucis —